The Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I have been contacted by Mr. James W. Cummings, an employee of the Department of Energy and a resident of Alexandria, Virginia.

As you will note from the enclosed correspondence, Mr. Cummings and others have appealed the decision of the Office of Computer Services and Telecommunications Management to contract out the services of the Forrestal Message Center ADP Services operations. The appeal was denied July 26.

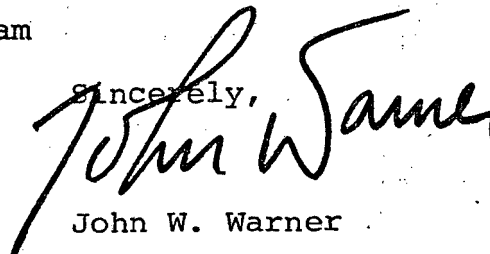

Mr. Cummings and his colleagues have serious concerns about this work being contracted out because of the highly classified information involved. They further assert that the cost analysis used to justify contracting out is erroneous.

While I cannot judge the economic merits of contracting out this government function, I am concerned about the allegations or exposing highly classified information to contract personnel. I wanted to bring it to your attention for any action you deem appropriate.

I understand that this decision will be finalized in the next few weeks so your expeditious review will be greatly appreciated.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

John W. Warner
